

DELTA TAU DELTA
TAU CHAPTER

Strengthening the Bond
CAMPAIGN

1872 - 2003

Celebrating the strength and character of the first fraternity at The Pennsylvania State University.

“Reflect on what you got out of the fraternity and know that it's worthwhile to pass on to another young man. Giving the same opportunity to a young person that we had ourselves is why I got involved.”

- Rob Guennter '82

Rewind the years to your days at Penn State. Remember the great friends and the great times at Delta Tau Delta.

As you watch the video that came with this brochure, you may see a familiar face. And you'll recall your journey to manhood with a group of strangers who became brothers.

We call the campaign for Tau Chapter “Strengthening the Bond,” because we know it takes intentional effort to maintain our valuable friendships across the miles and the years. Value always requires investment. Our bond of brotherhood is priceless, but not free. We are men who love a challenge, honor our commitments and pursue excellence in everything we do.

Delta Tau Delta has had several homes at Penn State, and has endured many challenges. Yet there have always been men like you to preserve the unique Tau Delt experience for the next generation. Even if you never lived there, The Shelter on East Hamilton Avenue is your home at Penn State ...

your time-share fountain of youth.

It's been almost a quarter of a century since the last renovations. We must do significant work now to ensure we remain one of the top fraternities at Penn State, and a great place to come home.

Join us now as we restore and renovate The Shelter...and more importantly, as we strengthen the bond of brotherhood which enriches our lives.

“The [fraternity] experience literally shaped my life ... I met my wife through friends at the fraternity, my career choice was through a fellow brother and my closest friends continue to be those that I made through the fraternity.”
